UNICEF Rights of the Child Article 29

Education must develop every child's personality, talents and abilities to the full. It must encourage the child's respect for human rights, as well as respect for their parents, their own and other cultures and the environment.

Hearts and Minds Working as One

My name is _____

We would be very grateful if you could take the time to fill in this All About Me booklet. The aim of this booklet is to help us to get to know a little bit more about your child, their family and their interests, prior to them starting school in September. It is entirely up to you how much, or how little, you include. Please send it back via email to:

ahedges@yetminster.dorset.sch.uk

Thank you,

Mrs Anna Hedges

Things you might like us to know about your family

Please write as much, or as little, as you wish:

If English is not your first, or only, language:

What language is spoken at home?

How is your child's name pronounced?

What is your ethnic and cultural background?

Is there anything we can do to accommodate any cultural routines?

Helpful information for us about your child

Which pre-school setting does your child attend?

Telephone number of current pre-school setting:

Does your child know another child from his/her pre-school who is also starting at St Andrew's Primary School? (Please list first names only).

How does your child express their feelings?

How does your child express what they need or want? Are there key words known only to family ?

How does your child gain your attention?

Has your child experienced a traumatic event or have a phobia?
(e.g. clowns, hospital, traffic accident)
